

Cooperation Agreement between
The Korean Film Council (Republic of Korea)
and Agência Nacional do Cinema (Federative Republic of Brazil)

The Korean Film Council (hereafter KOFIC), of the Republic of Korea and the Agência Nacional do Cinema a (hereafter ANCINE) of the Federative Republic of Brazil, hereafter referred to as the parties, have agreed as follows;

Article 1
Cultural Diversity

The parties attach great importance to the preservation and promotion of cultural diversity in the field of cinema and of the audiovisual industry, with the objective to guaranteeing access to the public to a supply of diverse cinematographic and audiovisual works.

Article 2
Film promotion and Festivals

Within the means of the mechanisms of support at their disposal, each party will support the promotion of each other's films in their country.

Each party shall aim to identify, among the festivals organised in their territory, those that will showcase the works of the other party. Should it be necessary, the parties will collaborate with the organisers of the festivals in order to facilitate the showcasing of professionals of the other party.

Article 3 Coproducton

The parties agree that co-productions are one of the primary means which encourage the circulation and exchange of cinematographic works between the two countries, and are an important source of funding for film productions. They will therefore do their best to encourage such co-production projects through the existing support mechanisms, as well as develop discussions on a possible future co-production treaty between their Governments.

The parties will also work to facilitate the development of relationships between the producers who are likely to participate in these co-productions.

Article 4 Duration and implementation

This bilateral global agreement will be in effect for two years after coming into force.

Each party agrees to designate a representative, who will be responsible for the implementation of this agreement:

São Paulo, Brazil, 23rd October 2013.
